ORDER GRANTING PARTIES' AND CERTAIN OBJECTORS' JOINT CONSENT MOTION TO WITHDRAW OBJECTIONS,
WITHDRAW MOTIONS, AND EXTEND CLAIMS FILING
DEADLINE UNTIL JANUARY 31, 2008

This matter having come before the Court on the Parties and Certain Objectors' Joint Consent Motion to Withdraw Objections, Withdraw Motions and Extend Claims Filing Deadline Until January 31, 2008, it is this 9th day of November 2007, hereby

ORDERED that the Joint Consent Motion is GRANTED, and it is further:

ORDERED that:

1. Leave is granted to the objectors Tracie Armstrong and the objectors represented by the Law Firm of Jack H. Olender & Associates, P.C. to withdraw their objections and their motions to stay the case-filing deadline;
2. The objections and motion to stay claims-filing deadline filed by Tracie Armstrong and the objectors represented by the Law Firm of Jack H. Olender & Associates, P.C. are hereby dismissed as moot;
3. The deadline for filing claims in this case for all claimants of the class is extended to January 31, 2008;
4. "Documentation" as used in the Notice is deemed sufficient proof of claims under the present agreement by a written certification from a claimant's attorney (who purchased records on the claimant's behalf) indicating that the claimant is the one who ultimately bore the cost of the records. Such certification is valid whether or not the claimant's underlying claim is settled as long as the client has already borne the cost of the records (such as by reimbursing the attorney for the cost of the records).

5. The present agreement includes as class members those whose underlying cases have settled or not; and

6. The Class Counsel and Defendant ChartOne, Inc. together will donate a total of four thousand dollars ($4,000) to the Friends of Court fund (or other District of Columbia Superior Court Fund agreed to by the Parties and Objectors) without diminishment of the class members' recovery as set forth in the proposed settlement agreement, within 30 days of a final judgment approving the settlement.
